AUB 1st-half income up 44%

Asia United Bank (AUB) and its subsidiaries posted a 44% increase in their net profit to P1.23 billion for the first six months of 2016 versus the same period in 2015, buoyed by strong gains from its lending and trading activities.

The AUB Group, composed of publicly listed universal bank AUB and two rural banks, saw its interest income jump 25% to P3.5 billion for the period in review. Driving the income was the growth in loans, both commercial and retail, which stood at P2.7 billion from the year-ago level of P2.1 billion. Trading income likewise improved.

During the first half, AUB expanded its geographical reach, including 22 branches of Rural Bank of Pampanga (RBA), and the Cavite United Rural Bank (CURB).

AUB is among the top 20 banks in the Philippines with an asset size of P155.4 billion, 18% higher than as of June 30, 2015.
